

Majesty

Building 429

Lord, You are the light of my heart
Grander than the greatest stars
You are, that I might be alive for Thee
Lord, You came and breathed anew
A gift of life that will not cease
I am, that You might be glorified And I open my eyes to see
I'm asking You, Lord, reveal to me Your majesty is captivating all of me
And I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
And we stand amazed breathless as we come to face Your majesty
Lord, I come into this place
To bring honor to Your name
I stand, just to sing of Your great fame So I open my heart to You
'Cause there's nothing else that I can do When Your majesty is captivating all of me
And I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
And we stand amazed breathless as we come to face Will You shine down over Your children
Reach out and touch us again
Shine down over Your children
Reach out and touch me again
And I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty is captivating all of me
And I stand before the one who makes my heart adore
Your majesty beyond what mortal souls could dream
And we stand amazed breathless as we come to face
Your majesty, Your majesty, Your majesty
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>