

Otherwise (feat. James Arthur)

MOKS

Take a deep breath and listen
As it feels like we've fallen in too deep
I follow your decision
Your prediction and now I have to leave on your behalf
And we go on
On our own
Oh, can we ever be the same again?
Oh, I don't know but I don't care
oh
Cause you chose otherwise
You took an other turn
Oh, you chose otherwise
and now you'll have to feel the burn
Oh, you chose otherwise
and now you gotta learn
cause you chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You will see what you're missing
But by then I'll be back up on my feet
I'll be counting your reasons
All the reasons you had to make me leave on your behalf
And we go on
On our own
Oh, can we ever be the same again?
Oh, I don't know
And I don't care, no
Cause you chose otherwise
You took another turn
And now you'll have to feel the burn
Oh, you chose otherwise
And now you gotta learn
Cause you chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
Why should I be anybody else for you and I?
Gave you all my heart, my soul, my spirit and my time
And you chose otherwise
Oh oh
Oh oh oh

You chose otherwise
Oohh yeah
Yeah
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
You chose otherwise
ooh no no na na na na
Ooh
You chose otherwise
