

Atoms

ABRA

you know you can do what you please if leaving is your goal then please go by all means i will not hold you so give me back my keys but first come get your shit and wash my bed sheets i cannot stomach all the smells of who you used to be and men of imagination cannot lay with me and men of my imagination cannot stay with me what so you mad didn't you say it aint that serious intact did you seriously expect me to be sad maybe am but baby you won't see none of that he said you crazy lady i said you aint seen nothing yet baby cause i am more than
atoms and notions
smoke mirrors and potions
a bag of bone in motion
come drown in my ocean
you tell me that you sorry baby we already both knew that you tell me that you need me but baby I'm not coming back and no i will not pardon a rolling stone a heartless soul or a bag of bones with no control yes I'm a rock but my shades of gray will not be shaded jade today
cause i am more than

a bag of bones in motion
well I'm poor in peace and I'm poor in serenity so I'll pour me up another one of these and if this too should pass well i'll drink to that we could pour me into an hourglass
