

Hurt Me Now

Austra

In a burning building
I was boiling over
With a head of ashes
On a bed of stone Oh, can you hear me now?
Oh, don't hurt me now In the velvet calm
Willing undone
I placed my heart on the table
When the fire comes
Oh, don't hurt me now
Oh, don't hurt me now Have I become
Willing undone?
You put the temple
Into the ground Oh, don't hurt me now
Oh, don't hurt, me, now
In the velvet calm
Had I known the hour
What I would have done their bidding
What would I have done?
Had I had a hundred fathers
Had I been a king
How would I have gone
