

So High

Doja Cat

Blow, weed, coke, pop x
Speedin up the heartbeat, bangin in my chest
When you put it on me you relieve my stress You got me so high, takin deep, deep breaths
You get me so high
You get me so high
I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high You get me so high
You get me so high
I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high You get me so high
I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high, high
You got me so turnt up
This dude gotta be so high Weed always on the mind
Now he always on my mind
Doja.
Know you want some of this purr You ain't gotta say a word
Just blunt that let's get burnt
Then we'll roll up a hunnit fuckin' blunts
All up in my mouth, now I'm all up in yo... This nigga got pounds of it all up in his trunk
Now we both look Asian
He waving and I'm drunk
I got dank shit in my cup
You know what Imma do to you
I could get real used to you
Blow, weed, x and we sipping on that juice, juice
That's just what she choose to do
Man, this shit these drugs'll do to you
Blow, weed, coke, pop x
Speedin up the heartbeat, bangin in my chest
When you put it on me you relieve my stress
You got me so high, takin deep, deep breaths
You get me so high
You get me so high
I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high
I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high

I know you ain't a drug but you get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high
You get me so high
