

Cruisin

Jill Scott

You say you wanna love me
'Cause that's what I need
But I ain't sure if that's what you're here for You say I can trust you
And I wanna believe
I hear your words but my heart needs to see I can't see myself waking in the morning with someone else but I can't tell if it's love I need to know
So I'm cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
Cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
In my past I made mistakes because I was drunk on love
Too quick to trust
Jumped in too easy
Yet we feel like we could be an us but my fear is strong though I've seen no wrong I hope I'm not dreaming I can't see myself waking in the morning with someone else but I can't tell if it's love. I need to know
So I'm cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
Cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
You seem like you're on time.
You feel like a good guy
You make my mind wander
We're laughing all the while You're holding out your hand
You're such a lion man
But I'm scared So I'm cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
Cruisin' on the evening breeze to clear my mind take my time so I can breathe
