

Cool Again

Shoffy

I feel like this is a bad one
Racked up too many mistakes
Thought you were in for the long run Now you're just another heartbreak Ohhh, you don't know
How this goes
If I'm being honest, yeah It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again
It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again I know I said
We'll be fine
But that was then
And it's a lie
It might take a little longer
For us to be cool, cool, again
(Ohh, oh-oh-ohh)
Cool, cool again (ohh, oh-oh-ohh) Had my heart for over three years
Don't think you understand
Probably take double that to see clear
Keeping up, being part of my plan Ohhh, you don't know
How this goes
If I'm being honest, yeah It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again
It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again
I know I said
We'll be fine
But that was then
And it's a lie It might take a little longer
For us to be cool, cool, again
(Ohh, oh-oh-ohh)
Cool, cool again (ohh, oh-oh-ohh) We had sketched out our future
You were mine and I were yours
You'll always have a place in my heart
Just need some time to heal It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again
It might take a little longer
For us to be cool again I know I said (I know I...)
We'll be fine (and it was...)
But that was then (that was then...)
And it's a lie It might take a little longer (girl)
For us to be cool, cool, again
(Ohh, oh-oh-ohh)
Cool, cool again (ohh, oh-oh-ohh) Cool again

Baby
Cool again
