

Fix Somebody

New Rules

You make me feel like a stranger
Can't see myself in the mirror
After all you wanted me to change I'm the problem that's what you call me
So you can say that, that you solved me
When it falls apart I take the blame That's how I know
You just want to fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
Want me to be someone else
Yeah you always say that I need saving but I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself
Fix yourself
Tried to make, make you happy
You still take till I'm empty
Every time we argue it's the same
I can't be who you want me to
Cos I'm not broken enough for you
And I know I know I know
You just want to fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
Want me to be someone else
Yeah you always say that I need saving but I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
I can't be who you want me to
I'm not broken enough for you
You just want to fix somebody
It ain't hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
To be someone else
You just want to fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me

Want me to be someone else
Yeah you always say that I need saving but I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
Heya
Heya
Fix yourself
