

Someone to Love

David Archuleta

I'm tired of
Looking in the mirror
I've got this feeling that something ain't right
'Cause what they told me
I always believed them
Boy fight for yourself, that's the story of lifeUmm... didn't wanna get it wrong and the fear told me to wait
But I had to learn to love
Something had to changeUh, uh, can you see it now?
Uh, uh, look what I found
You-u are someone to love
Uh, uh, what a sweet surprise
Now-w I realized that you-u are someone to love
Feels like a deep breath
Feels like a good rest
When you come to find it's not all about you
I need it a jump start, hooked up to this heart
I need it to wake up and break up from this all point of you, ohhUh, uh, can you see it now?
Uh, uh, look what I found
You-u are someone to love
Uh, uh, what a sweet surprise
Now-w I realized that you-u are someone to loveAnd you are A home new feeling
And you are
The biggest reason that I had to learn to love, uh, yeah, yeah
Uh, uh, can you see it now?
Uh, uh, look what I found
You-u are someone to love
Uh, uh, what a sweet surprise
And now I realized that you-u are someone to love
Someone to love, yeah
And you-u are someone to love, yeah
