Danger Ahead

Tanya Tucker

I warned you baby, a long time ago You got to stop all this, hurtin' me so But, I don't think you heard a word I said Well I'm telling you now honey That there's danger ahead Treating me bad, telling me lies That ain't cool baby, that ain't wise You've been running around, spending all of my bread You better change your ways now 'Cause there's danger aheadHell hath no fury, like a woman scorned They should've told you that on the day you was borned Better watch your step now, be careful where you tread I'm telling you this baby That there's danger ahead Can't understand why you want to do me wrong Straighten up baby, or you'll find me gone I gonna love you, that's sure enough But if you're looking for trouble, well I can get tough I'm gonna quit all my cryin', dry all the tears that I shed Yea I'm warning you baby that there's danger ahead Well, I'm warning you baby that there's danger ahead Oh, I'm warning you baby that there's danger ahead
