

Desert Rain (feat. Vika Jigulina)

Edward Maya

I miss you so much
Now I'm awake
Just hold me tight
In every dream you're my guiding light. We, we were lost
This, walk of pain
I miss you so much, now I call again, Come, come tonight
Just, hold me tight
From this desert rain, you're my guiding light We, we were lost
This, walk of tide
We forgot about love, we forgot about us
Now, I am here, dreams become real
I feel like the sand is blowing away
Into the storm
I'm inside this dream
That feels just like
A desert rain We, we were lost
This, walk of pain
I miss you so much, now I call again, Come, come tonight
Just, hold me tight
From this desert rain, you're my guiding light We, we were lost
This, walk of tide
We forgot about love, we forgot about us
Now, I am here, dreams become real
I feel like the sand is blowing away
Into the storm
I'm inside this dream
That feels just like
A desert rain You will always have my soul
Even dreams are secret worlds
Missing you
I feel like the sand is blowing away
Into the storm
I'm inside this dream
That feels just like
A desert rain
