

Bleed Out

Jason Derulo

This isn't love
This isn't love, ooh I, I love hard (love hard)
Why you put a, put a gun to my heart
I just gotta say hey!
I just gotta say hey! I've always loved hard
So I take it slow
I guess it's my fault 'cause I'm on the go
But I, always cared for you
Not saying I'm perfect, not even close
But I don't deserve this
But girl I suppose
I wasn't there for you enough, cause
You're coming home late
With nothing else to say
Can't look me in my face, I can't live out this way
Can't live out this way
Can't live out this way
You put a thorn in my heart, oh
That's when it starts Just a little tear,
Just a little tear.
That's when I bleed.
When I bleed, I bleed out When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave I bleed out.
When I bleed, I bleed out When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave I bleed out.
I look in those eyes
There's nothing there
I'm looking into
The coldest stare I've ever seen
We haven't touched each other forever
Don't know what I do, if we're not together
I'm not ready to leave, no baby.
You're coming home late
With nothing else to say
Can't look me in my face, I can't live out this way Can't live out this way
Can't live out this way
You put a thorn in my heart, oh
That's when it starts Just a little tear
Just a little tear
That's when I bleed.

When I bleed, I bleed out When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave I bleed out.
When I bleed, I bleed out When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave i bleed out. I, I love hard
Why you wanna put a gun to my heart
I just gotta say hey!
I just gotta say hey!
I, I love hard
Why you wanna put a gun to my heart
I just gotta say hey!
I just gotta say hey! When I bleed, I bleed out
When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave I bleed out.
When I bleed, I bleed out
When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave, I bleed out.
When I bleed, I bleed out
When I cry, I cry loud
When I love, you can bet I'm all in
When you leave, I bleed out.
