

Forever Love

Francesca Battistelli

You are my forever love From the bottom of my heart, I'll sing to you
From the depths of who I am, I'll love you
With everything inside, I'll run to you
Cause all that I've become, I owe to you
You are my forever love From the bottom of my heart, I'll sing to you
From the depths of who I am, I'll love you
With everything inside, I'll run to you
Cause all that I've become, I owe to you
You are my forever love Nothing in this world could ever separate us
I will love you more, than anyone on Earth
Nothing I deserve, could ever satisfy me the way that you do
From the bottom of my heart, I'll sing to you
From the depths of who I am, I'll love you
With everything inside, I'll run to you
Cause all that I've become, I owe to you
You are my forever love
