

Thanking You

Tank

All out of pieces, all out of parts
All out of moves, all out of cards
All out of reason, all out of hope
All out of seasons, all out of growth
All out of joy, all out of sun
All out of laughter, all out of fun(Pre-)
I'm running out of the things that protect my heart
From this side of hell I can see that I'm broken apart()
Be with me and don't leave me, I could use some work
Thought that I would die cause I found too much?
But I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
Finding all the answers in every dear quire
I ain't right to nobody if I'm already right sponsored linksSo I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you()
All out of rope, all out of chances
All out of songs, all out of dances
All out of umbrella, shelter for the rain
Been lost these days, been feelin' this pain
I gave you less, I thought I had more
Forgot all those pieces back there on the floor(Pre-)
I'm running out of the things that protect my heart
From this side of hell I can see that I'm broken apart
Be with me and don't leave me, I could use some work
Thought that I would die cause I found too much?
But I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
Finding all the answers in every dear quire
I ain't right to nobody if I'm already right
So I'm thanking you, I'm thanking you
