

We'll Be OK

Asking Alexandria

Your voice is calling my name
Again and again
The web you wove around me was only the beginning
And every star I counted, as cold as your embrace
I've listened - I have questioned
Every word you choked on
The secret - The answer
I'm just a slave to all your sins
If I've been so stupid
So blind, so void, so empty
I hope you forgive me
I'm just a echo in your head
You made my life a fucking misery
Remember when you tied me down
Yeah, I sank in the unvertainty
I prayed for you to blindfold me
FUCK
I'm just so scared of what I'll see
Your voice is callind my name
My soul is caught up in flames
I feel I'm loos control
I'm here, I'm yours to atone
Again and again...
FUCK - OH NO - GOD
Mesmerized by your motion
But my memories of you forever standing still
Your voice is calling my name
My soul is caught up in flames
I feel I'm loosing control
I'm here, I'm yours to atone
Again and again...
I'll spill the ink on the empty page
I feel this fever taking over me
Help me, 'cause I can't live this way
Tell me why the momories won't fade away
But we'll be okay
We'll bejust fine
I never took the time to say sorry
But all ever needed was you
