

Until You Suffer Some (Fire and Ice)

Poison

Lately I can tell that something ain't right
I don't see the fire when I look in your eyes
One time up and the next time down
This may be the last time that you see me around, said Well, it sure seems to me nothing matters tonight
And all those things we worked out, they got lost in the fight
It's not enough, girl, that I gave you my soul
I just want to know if we've got anything left at all and I say Hold on now, baby
This could be the last time we stand
This could be the last time
That we say goodbye The picture shatters
I can't find the words to save it
Tell me what to do, how can I make it right?
We will always be fire and ice
Well, promises made in the heat of the night
You could sure spit them out, girl, but they've long passed me by Nobody knows about the show you put me through
This could be the last time that I get through to you and I say Hold on now, baby
This could be the last time we stand
This could be the last time
That we say goodbye The picture shatters
I can't find the words to save it
Tell me what to do, how can I make it right?
We will always be fire and ice Well, I can't stand to see no more damage done
But you'll never understand until you suffer some and I said Hold on now, baby
This could be the last time we stand
This could be the last time
That we say goodbye
The picture shatters
I can't find the words to save it
Tell me what to do, how can I make it right?
We will always be fire and ice
