

Shoulda Known Better

Case

Been around the world ladies come and go
But still I told myself that you weren't one of those That's what I get for being alive
I'm not upset or headed goodbye Tried to love you tried to please you
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better I feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better Such a perfect love
Or so I thought it was
But you were loving you
Girl instead of loving us
That's what I get for being alive
I'm not upset or headed goodbye Girl I can't believe how much really love'd you
And you really don't believe hoe much I care
So I guess I made a fool out of myself
But believe me
It won't happen again Tried to love you tried to please you
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better I feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better
I feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better Tried to love you tried to please you
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better I feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better Girl I can't believe
how much really love'd you
And you really don't believe hoe much I care
So I guess I made a fool out of myself
But believe me
It won't happen again You shoulda known better Tried to love you tried to please you
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better I feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see

You shoulda known betterTried to love you tried to please you
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known betterI feel so dumb
Made you the one
Never made a difference I see
You shoulda known better
You shoulda known better
You shoulda known better...
