

Turn Up the Radio

OK Go

Turn up the radio
And turn off the lights
I want it loud as hell
I want the walls to melt
Cause I've got to lose myself tonight
Yeah I've got to let it all go tonight
So turn off the lights Cause now the world's turned down, and stop
Fadin' all the bytes and the "maybes" and the "mights"
And I should've known the hammer'd drop
Cause something must be wrong if everything is right And nothing's gonna stop us now
Yeah, nothing's gonna stop us now
So turn up the radio
And turn off the lights
I want it loud as hell
I want the walls to melt
Cause I got to lose myself tonight
Yeah I got to let it all go tonight
So turn up the radio
And turn off the lights You know it's always just inches shy
But everything is just right
Everything is blue sky
But how huge that divide
And the hungrier the ghost
The more it opens wide And nothing's gonna stop us now
Yeah, nothing's gonna stop us now
So turn up the radio
And turn off the lights
I want it loud as hell
I want the walls to melt
Cause I got to lose myself tonight
Yeah I got to let it all go tonight
So turn up the radio
And turn off the lights So just tell me what's going on
So just tell me what's going on
Going on, going on So turn up the radio
And turn off the lights
I want it loud as hell
I want the walls to melt
Cause I got to lose myself tonight
Yeah, I've got to let it all go tonight
Yeah, I've got to lose myself tonight
Yeah, I've got to lose myself tonight

So turn off the lights
Cause I've got to let it all go tonight
Yeah, I've got to lose myself tonight
So turn off the lights
