

War

Good Charlotte

It always hits you the hardest when you are not ready
You better get ready, 'cause here it comes (oh-oh, oh-oh)
You know the pain, the fear, the hurt, or did you forget it?
Do you remember now? Here it comes (oh-oh, oh-oh) Do I need help? Am I talking to myself? You know it's always dark before the light (oh-oh, oh-oh)
It's always peace and quiet before the fight (oh-oh, oh-oh)
We're always on the front lines at the worst time
We got the best hearts, but we got sick minds
Love is all-out war tonight (oh-oh, oh-oh) So let me break this down, 'cause I won't be caving in
And my beautiful enemy, she won't run (oh-oh, oh-oh)
And when we stop this now, we'll lose all our sanity
Just like enemies, we come undone (oh-oh, oh-oh)
Do I need help? Am I talking to myself? You know it's always dark before the light (oh-oh, oh-oh)
It's always peace and quiet before the fight (oh-oh, oh-oh)
We're always on the front lines at the worst time
We got the best hearts, but we got sick minds
Love is all-out war tonight (oh-oh, oh-oh) I hear a scream and find
No peaceful days alone, no starlit night
Until the day I die, you've become the banner of my life
So when they rise up against you
I'll be standing here right beside you Just like war, just like it's war
So when they rise up against you
I'll be standing here right beside you
Just like war, war, war
Just like war, war, war
You can have my life tonight
You know it's always dark before the light (oh-oh, oh-oh)
It's always peace and quiet before the fight (oh-oh, oh-oh)
We're always on the front lines at the worst time
We got the best hearts, but we got sick minds
Love is all-out war tonight (oh-oh, oh-oh) War, war, war
Just like war, war, war
