Yeah
I'm freakin' you
And this the double T
I'm freaky you I bet you feelin' the stare
The moment is real
But I know you in serious thinking you
I know you prepare
You won't make up the stairs
And you came over here
Let me turn the lights up
I just want you under five it
You should let me pay the trade you everything
You got me being unexcited
Baby step into my room I might grow
Don't need a wedding ring I think sex was made to strangers
Making love this far the one to plan to stay together
How 'bout we can braise the danger
.when it's all said and done
We gonna do whole lot of.
We gonna do a whole lot of.
Yeah! Chorus:
I ain't gotta be your man
You ain't gotta be my girl
Let's let go off everything they talked you in this world
We gonna do a whole lot of. yeah!
I'm freakin' you, yeah
I'm freakin' you I'm not into fantasizing
I much rather put my hands on everything
I just hope that I'm invited yeah
Up into your room I'm your groom
I ain't got a ring I think sex was made to strangers
Making love this far the one to plan to stay together
How 'bout we can braise the danger
.when it's all said and done
We gonna do whole lot of.
We gonna do a whole lot of.
Yeah! Chorus:
I ain't gotta be your man
You ain't gotta be my girl
Let's let go off everything they talked you in this world
We gonna do a whole lot of. yeah! Can't deny what's here between us
Right now

I can feel your heart beating
    .so dangerous
We gonna do a whole lot of
    You gotta take ti for me
We gonna do a whole lot of.
    YeahChorus:
    I ain't gotta be your man
    You ain't gotta be my girl
Let's let go off everything they talked you in this world
    We gonna do a whole lot of. yeah!Yeah
    Expectations on the first name bases
    Is get together on exchange faces
