Believe

Staind

I sit alone and watch the clock Trying to collect my thoughts All I think about is youAnd so I cry myself to sleep And hope the devil I don't meet In my dreams that I live through Believe in me I know you've waited for so long Believe in me Sometimes the weak become the strong Believe in me This life's not always what it seems Believe in me 'Cause I was made for chasing dreams All the smiles you've had to fake And all the shit you've had to take Just to lead us here againI never have the things to say To make it all just go away To make it all just disappearBelieve in me I know you've waited for so long Believe in me

Sometimes the weak become the strong Believe in me

This life's not always what it seems Believe in me

'Cause I was made for chasing dreamsIt's my life, it's my choice

Hear my words, hear my voice

And just believe

I sit alone and watch the clock

Trying to collect my thoughts

And all I think about is youIf you believe in me

Life's not always what it seems

Believe in me

'Cause I was made for chasing dreamsBelieve in me

I know you've waited for so long

Believe in me

Sometimes the weak become the strong

Believe in me

This life's not always what it seems

Believe in me

'Cause I was made for chasing dreams
