She this book cover lady that be blowing up the spot

While my heart was racing, like the hands on the clock

I step live I think she see me putting out the pot

Peace Dot, I'm so happy to see you at the rendezvous

How's life today your hands are softer than Camay too your hairdo way more class than Halle Berry

Caught visions of me and you riding on the ferry

Plus your daughter Kiki talk to my man Merry

I order me a Sex on the Beach with the cherry

I order her a Vermidi on ice, sounds nice

She elegant, pretty eyes, glasses, intelligentWhispered in my ear that she's celibate

Whispered back to her ear we don't have to go there

As I grab the hand set her politely in the chair

As we stopped to stare at one another
 Black sister, the brother
 I'm thinking all the time how she could be my lover
 Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass
 Just another helpless
 Fool in love is what I am
 Love was never born to say, goodbye
 Love was never born to say, goodbye
 Just another helpless
 Fool in love is what I...
 Verse Three: Ghostface Killah
 What's happening brown sugar? Say you look so good today
 Ankle bracelet rapt around your leg
 Here have a seat, complementary drinks is on me Bartender Chevalier châteaux at table three Luxurious rings, eyes sparkling
 What's your name sugar? Juanita Cash Hawkins Your complexion gives a reflection of sometime a black woman just need to be loved Quiet and shy, baby girl my gift got you high
 Made you wanna hit me with the keys to that file
 Just joking baby, I have a sharp sense of humour
 Wish I would of bumped into your frame a lot sooner
 What's your physical degree, thirty one, thirty three Half Hawaiian with a slight touch of Chinese Seen you working at a law firm, on Fifth Avenue
 Three blocks from the Gucci spot is where I trapped you Yo, I'm all into older woman, who's happy living Love kids and, keep all up and this in the crib and not afraid to doubt need a God on your side
 We holding hands til death do us apart and then we slide
 Earring in the left side of your nose love my combo
 Should have left wiz a thousand times maybe tonight though
 But you sexy motherfucker damn what's the recipe?
 You make a nigga wanna GOD DAMN
 Can you cook darling, at the stove you're revolving
 Bake macaroni, turkey wings, a nigga starving Here take my number let me pull the chair from under
 I had fun plus your backyard speak with thunder
 Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass
 Love was never born to say, goodbye (5x)
 Just another helpless fool in love is what I am (repeat to fade)
