

Take Your Sweet Time

Jesse McCartney

It isn't a crime to want a little space to breathe
You will be fine, the sun again will shine
On you, whatever you do Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby
Anytime I'm feeling you pull away
'cause letting go isn't easy for me
But you'll never fly
With someone else's wings
I know
Wherever you go
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby
Anytime I will never stand in your way
Wherever your heart may lead you
I will love you the same
And I will be your comfort every day
Do you hear the words I say?
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here for you baby
Anytime
I will be here... for you
I will be here
I will be here
