

How Long Has This Been Going On

Carmen McRae

Neath the stars, at bazaars
Often I've had to caress men
Don't be sad, I must add, that they meant no more than chess-men Chess-men, chess-men, chess-men How long has this been goin' on? I could cry salty tears
Goin' on How long has this been goin' on? Did, when, in your arms, I creep
That divine rendez-vous
Kiss me once, kiss me twice then once more, that make's thrice, camone let's make it four How long has this been goin' on?
