

Brokered Heart

The Acorn

Your head is full of fire
With words and false desires
Oh, you signed and sealed it
My brokered heart believed it Your head's above the water
The land ahead has caught you
I've already signed and sealed it
My brokered hand believed it Again, my heart is caving in My eye is turning into dim
Your head is full of fire
With words and false desires
Oh, you signed and sealed it
My brokered heart believed it
