

Best Days

Tamela Mann

God gave me a future
He told me that i was chosen
Predestined, me for greatness
He gave me victory
Thou every day may not have sunshine
Thou seasons change it will be alright
Daily i'm making confessions
My faith i decree
OhhhI'm forgetting all those things behind me
So i can focus on what's ahead
I'm believing every thing God's spoke to me
These will be my best daysThese will be my best days
These will be my best days
I will fulfill my purpose
With each step i'm making progressDistractions won't change my focus
Living out God's plan for me
Thou every day may not have sunshine
Thou seasons may change it will be alright
Daily i'm making confessionsBy faith i decree
OhhhI'm forgetting all those things behind me
So i can focus on what's aheadI'm believing every thing God's spoke to me
And these will be my best days
I know it will
The best days are ahead of me
My worst days are behind me
Oh, the best days are ahead of me
My worst days are behind me
I decree
I declare
From now on
The rest of my days will be my best days, ohhhI decree
I declare
From now on
The rest of my days will be my best days
I decree
I declare
From now on
The rest of my days will be my best days
I decree
I declare
Hey, hey, he promised me
From now on

The rest of my days will be my best days
This will be my best days
