

Will We Remain? (feat. EL Waves)

Ilan Bluestone & Maor Levi

Will we remain?
Will our spark turn to fire?
My feelings have changed
Am I fighting in vain? I heard the sound of the ocean
It was headed our way
Followed by thunder
The roar and the rain My hope has started to fade
But the feelings grow deeper
I hate living this way
Scared that I'm getting weaker
So I smile to your face
And pretend that I'm happy
Longing for your embrace
Is this the price that I pay? But will we remain?
I'm strong enough to stay
I'm full of joy and pain
We were made this way I heard the sound of the ocean
It was headed our way
Followed by thunder
The roar and the rain Our hearts are on fire
Though nothing has changed
But still we remain
Still we remain Still we remain
But will we But will we remain
I'm strong enough to stay
I'm full of joy and hate
We were made this way I heard the sound of the ocean
It was headed our way
Followed by thunder
The roar and the rain But will we remain Still we remain
