Uh-Merica (Bonus Version)

Regina Spektor

Mrs. E. Roosevelt never heard me shoot my gun La. la. la Mrs. E. Roosevelt didn't even knew I owned one La, la, la Somewhere between the cobblestone floor and the slated wooden ceiling La, la, la Cuddling my semi-automatic—what a very fuzzy feeling La, la Ohhh, there's nothing Like Emptying a cartridge at the sun Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Ohhh, there's nothing Like Emptying a cartridge at the sunOh, we're born alone and then we're covered by m-m-mmothers' kisses The mind has already forgotten what the body still misses Somewhere between the sticky floor and the cracks in the ceiling Cuddling my semi-automatic—what a very fuzzy feeling Ohhh, there's nothing Like Emptying a cartridge at the sun Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Ohhh, there's nothing Like Emptying a cartridge at the sunOne more time! Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Uh! Merica Ohhh, there's nothing Like Emptying a cartridge at the sun La, la, la Emptying a cartridge at the sun La. la. la

Emptying a cartridge at the sun

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/