

Daily Battles

Thom Yorke & Flea

The lines are drawn
For daily battles
The trumpet sound
For daily troubles
Lock your dreams away
And waking up
Enough about
Your broken heart
You're on parade
For daily battles
The other side
It has no face
Upon it's cause
We can't remember
Enough about
Your broken heart
The lines are drawn
For daily battles
And I can mend
I cannot stop
Lock your dreams away
You're waking up
Enough about
Your broken heart
