

I Wanna Be a Warhol

Alkaline Trio

I wanna be a little piece of history
Let's go
I wanna be a painting for all to see
Let's go
Take a trip
Take a big hand full of these
And swallow
Just a headache
A fuzzy memory
Tomorrow I wanna be a Warhol
Hanging on your wall
You down there looking up at me
I wanna be a Warhol
Displayed on your wall
Hung up there staring back at you
Staring back at you Give me a taste of your misery
Let's go
Won't you please come play chemistry
And sorrow
I can't believe anything that you're telling me
Let's go
The walls are closing in and melting
Nice and slow I wanna be a Warhol
Hanging on your wall
You down there looking up at me
I wanna be a Warhol
Displayed on your wall
Hung up there staring back at you
Staring back at you I wanna be a Warhol
Hanging on your wall
Staring down at you I wanna be a Warhol
Displayed on your wall
Still hung up on you
Still hung up on you
Still hung up on you
