

Safe (Enter and Fall Remix)

Dani'el

Word by word
They fell into this page
Each letter carries a moment
Needs to be there, to stay
The ink never fades
Still watching at me
Lurking at the corner,
Wonders if the memory is still there I sent you this page
There were so many
Knows that you will sing
And memorize each saying
Now I know
If my words in your hands
I Am safe
You once said to me
You can always be safe
But destiny had his call
In his own way you made
Now there is only whisper
Goes for miles
Travels on one paper
With a post stamp to remind
Word by word
They fell
Watching
Lurking
Hope
Still there
