

Wherever We Are (feat. Elohim)

Oliver

Everything is gone before we know
I'm scared of losing sight of my control
I wish I knew where to break the mold
I can remember what it's like to be alone Well you only have this moment till you're free
Living out a very peculiar dream
Taking breaths as we ride and as we scream
The spirit and this ghost it leaves
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be
Wherever we are
I give you all of me
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be All I am is skin and bones
Swimming in an empty open road
Lost with endless places lit with crowd
Bring me close and promise not to let me go Reaching out across to touch a life
There's a hollow piece of light beneath the cry
I wanna bottle up the flashing time
I'm addicted to the taste that you're mine
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be
Wherever we are
I give you all of me
Wherever we are
We're supposed to be
