

Changes (Syn Cole Remix)

Hazers

1]

I'm not vague
I know I sound vague
But I remember looking pretty good in that dumb t-shirt
Can't remember if I saw you
Or you saw me first
But that day, with the sound of the waves and the sunset haze
Could it ever get better?
Oh, could it ever get better? It was over before we
Had the chance to know that
We can never go back
But you know what
I keep on making changes, cha-changes
Keep on changing 'til we feel the sameness
The night we made a fire on the beach
Last summer, getting into each other Got a new place
Now I'm finding new ways
To color my hair, but when I look into the mirror
I just see me looking back at a stranger
That day, with the sound of the waves and the sunset blaze
It couldn't get better
No, it couldn't get better It was over before we
Had the chance to know that
We can never go back
But you know what
I keep on making changes, cha-changes
Keep on changing 'til we feel the sameness
The night we made a fire on the beach
Last summer, getting into each other I'm not vague
But I remember looking pretty good in that dumb t-shirt
I think you saw me first
On that day, with the sound of the waves and the sunset haze
Could it ever get better?
Oh, could it ever get better? I keep on making changes, cha-changes
Keep on changing 'til we feel the sameness
The night we made a fire on the beach
Last summer, getting into each other
