

Blah Loops

Like & Kali Uchis

You're like a spaceship sent for me 'Bout to beam me up and take me high away
Light years ahead yeah Can't picture life without you
Like a twelve-piece symphony Creating melodies all around you love Light years ahead yeah Simple-minded talk about you but Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah blah blah Loops playing Sweet tooth for your love let's soufflé it I'm too faded off wine, what's this? Zinfandel?
Nah I'm not seeing double Nah you just thick as hell Won't kiss and tell
But I dreamed this on a wishing well Moments pursuing my life And yeah I treat you well
Maybe a night in Versailles will light up your eyes Picnic blankets Watching fire flowers light up the sky Intimate as the stroke of a brush Records spinning, smoking blunts Discussing plans to shift the culture for once
We engaged like we ain't spoken in months
I mean it's heavy how we both can't get enough
How we both can get a rush off of touch Off of touch Yeah off of touch Off of what Yeah yeah You're like a spaceship sent for me 'Bout to beam me up and take me high away
Light years ahead yeah Can't picture life without you
Like a twelve-piece symphony Creating melodies all around you love Lightyears ahead yeah
The simple-minded blah loops Playing in my mind like it's programming Feel like some '95 type slow jamming Vintage picture Films with the old cameras Been told I hold manners like an old grandpa
So anti So high you're on standby Smoke weed and took the redeye Too jedi she said I Bring her lots of joy and I Replied, "I wish we could press rewind." Sipping red wine on Delta Airlines Thanking God I still got my hairline, word word Thanking God I never sold my soul, word word Independent I control my own, word word
I need a queen with me to share the throne
Trust me enough to not go through my phone
I found a nice groove I think I'm in my zone Just finished this rhyme I'm 'bout to land in Rome You're like a spaceship sent for me 'Bout to beam me up and take me high away
Light years ahead yeah Can't picture life without you
Like a twelve-piece symphony Creating melodies all around you love Light years ahead yeah
The simple-minded talk about you but
Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah blah blah is all you hear Blah
blah blah
