

Dreamer

Maya Jane Coles

I wake up in the night, I still got a pain I. I'm feeling out of touch, I think about things way too much. Dreams are what I like. Travel through the night. I'm invincible once I close my eyes.

Can't take the pressure, escape to my dream. Sometimes this world is better.

Now the only way is up. I think about things way too much. I'm lost without a dream, drifting into space.

Can't take the pressure, escape to my dream. Sometimes this world is better.

Dreams are what I like. I'm invincible once I close my eyes.

There's nowhere else to go but up. Been holding on for so long.

I can't take the pressure.
