Sunny Days (feat. Josh Cumbee)

Armin van Buuren

You woke up in the morning With the sunrise in your eyes

But all that she's seeing is darkness

She won't tell you whyNo more butterflies 'cause they don't never last

Stolen from the light by demons of the past

It's always raining

But she keeps on prayingOh, sunny days

Lift me when I'm down

Oh, sunny days

Break you through the clouds

Oh, sunny days

Oh, oh, ooh

She keeps on praying

Oh, oh, ooh

She keeps on praying

Oh, oh, ooh

She keeps on prayingAll she needs is shelter

Shelter for the night

And this one could be heaven

But she's looking down the lineNo more butterflies 'cause they don't never last Stolen from the light by demons of the past

It's always raining

She keeps on praying

Oh, sunny days

Lift me when I'm down

Oh, sunny days

Break you through the clouds

Oh, sunny daysOh, oh, ooh

She keeps on praying

Oh, oh, ooh

She keeps on praying

Oh, oh, ooh

She keeps on prayingSunny days

Lift me when I'm down

Oh, sunny days
