

Little Motel

Modest Mouse

I hope that you like it in your little motel
And I hope that the suite sleeps and suits you well
Well I can see it as time and as sight through smell
And that's why it's nice to be by yourself Cause that's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for
That's what I'm waiting for, aren't I?
That's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for
That's what I'm waiting for darlin' We treat mishaps like sinking ships
And I know that I don't want to be out to drift
Well I can see it in your eyes like I taste your lips and They both tell me that we're better than this Cause that's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for
That's what I'm waiting for, aren't I?
That's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for That's what I'm waiting for darlin' We trade tit for tat like that for this
And I don't think that there was an insult that was missed
I can see it in your eyes like I taste your lips
And I'm very sorry Cause that's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for
That's what I'm waiting for, aren't I?
That's what I'm waiting for, that's what I'm waiting for
That's what I'm waiting for darlin' Remainders of a shooting star
Landed directly on our broke down little car
Before then we had made a wish
That we would be missed
If one or another just did not exist
Cause that's what we're waiting for, that's what we're waiting for
That's what we're waiting on aren't we?
That's what we're waiting for, that's what we're waiting for
That's what we're waiting on aren't we?
That's what we're waiting for, that's what we're waiting for
That's what we're waiting for darlin'
That's what we're waiting for, that's what we're waiting for That's what we're waiting for aren't we?
