Think I'm proud to be your enemy
Take your hands off of me
You're worse than the thing that possessed me
They way they were
The way they should have been
AnnalisaAnnalisa was 15 years

Stole her soul

But I hear no tears

Ever been alone

And heard the voice

Not your own

I've seen those fears

Annalisa

Somehow you used ignorance for sense

Melodrama in your eyes

All concern rests with the dead

Annalisa Annalisa had no escape

Starved to death in a waiting room

Cheap concern and rosary beads

Did not solve screaming needs

AnnalisaAnnalisa was 15 years

Stole her soul

But I hear no tears

Ever been alone

And heard the voice

Not your own

I've seen those fears
