

Children of the Sun (feat. John Martin)

Tinie Tempah

Lay down your head
You're not alone
Anywhere you go I'll follow
We are the children of the sun
That's all you need to know
Lay down your head
You're not alone
Anywhere you go I'll follow
We are the children of the sun
That's all you need to know
Bitch I'm a moonwalker like Michael Skywalk all over my rivals
Both hands on that bible
Bitch I'm next in line for that title
A nigga got nothing to do, I was idle
I was in the studio with Taio
Now we're cli-cli-cli-cli-climbing high
We ain't on no kilimanjaro
When they're pa-pa-pa-pa-panicking
They don't really know what's happening
Now we've got our clothes on a mannequin
We don't want no comparison
I overdosed on extravagance
We went for gold and got platinum
I told my bro to get an ambulance
Coz i caught a cold and went spaz on em
YEAH
How can home be where the heart is
When your shadow even fucking
Leaves you when you are in darkness
Still get stop by sergeant pepper
Looking for that ziggy stardust
After a lifetime of regret
I'm just looking for some answers Lay down your head
You're not alone
Anywhere you go I'll follow
We're the children of the sun
That's all you need to know
Lay down your head
You're not alone
Anywhere you go I'll follow We're the children of the sun
That's all you need to know I had opportunity on my window

Wise words in my kindle
Disturbing London we raised the bar
Whilst your team was stuck in limbo
Like Freddie, Bruno and Ringo
I saw the signs and symbols
With that top down on my yellow ride
Let bitches hate on my bimbo
I'm yard away from that milestone
International dial tone
Put me through amaro
When you Instagram with your iPhone
From yellow bricks to them brown stones
I ring bells, I'm household
Look at all the rappers, we out-sold
So shhhhh keep your mouth closed

YEAH

How did I become so jaded
Maybe all these insecurities
Are making me feel naked
Feel like harry did in Vegas
Had my privacy invaded
That's a liberty a pity
The epitome of what fame is
Priest up in my parish keep on putting me in their prayers
Swear I'd never sell my soul
My pride and dignity is too major

We rarely ever get those second chances After a lifetime of regret
I'm just looking for some answers

YEAH Lay down your head

You're not alone

Anywhere you go I'll follow

We're the children of the sun

That's all you need to know

Lay down your head You're not alone

Anywhere you go I'll follow

We're the children of the sun

That's all you need to know Looking for a light

That can outshine the sun

I know one day our time will come

Bought a camera to capture these cinematic nights

Still don't satisfy my appetite for this lavish life

Tell me doctor am I fit for all these flashing lights

Like Michael said it doesn't matter if you're black or white Look at the colors

That's under the sun above us

All we have is each other

In case you happened to wonder

LET'S GO Lay down your head

You're not alone

Anywhere you go I'll follow
We're the children of the sun
That's all you need to know
Lay down your head
You're not alone
Anywhere you go I'll follow
We're the children of the sun
That's all you need to know
