

Living Out Loud (feat. Sia)

Brooke Candy

Twenty-five ounces in a bottle of wine
Twenty-four hours it's a day at a time
Twenty-three lived a hell of a life
Twenty-two such a blur, it's passing me by Twenty-one I caught a glimpse of the light
Twenty drinks later in the back of a ride
Nineteen momma kicked me outta the house
Eighteen minutes 'till you bail me out
Seventeen magazine was telling the truth
When they said we all have issues Just thinking out loud
Screaming so loud
Foolish and proud
Living out loud
Living out loud
Out loud
No, nothing can stop me now
(Gonna live out loud)
And no one can break me down
(Gonna live out loud)
I'm screaming my demons out
(Gonna live out loud)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how
(Ooh)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how (Ooh), Living out loud is the only way I know how Sixteen candle's, yeah, I'm faking my age
Fifteen minutes till they need me on stage
Fourteen K I would have done it for free
Thirteen roses and they bought them for me
Twelve step program but I don't like to walk
Eleven wet kisses just to get me to talk
Ten fingers when you're holding my hand
Nine, Eight, Seven she lives
Just thinking out loud
Screaming so loud
Foolish and proud
Living out loud
Living out loud
Out loud No, nothing can stop me now
(Gonna live out out loud)
And no one can break me down
(Gonna live out loud)
I'm screaming my demons out

(Gonna live out loud)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how
(Ooh)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how (Ooh), Living out loud is the only way I know how I gotta live out loud, out loud
Yeah living out loud, is the only way I know how Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how No, nothing can stop me now
(Gonna live out out loud)
And no one can break me down
(Gonna live out loud)
I'm screaming my demons out
(Gonna live out loud)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how
(Ooh)
'Cause living out loud, is the only way I know how (Ooh), Living out loud is the only way I know how
