

The Enemy

Anthrax

The plans, of a race gone mad
A final solution to pass
All dreams are taken from their lives
No hope for the young all the old realizeHe is but a solitary man
Whose prejudice will spread like a flame
Throughout the land
He's enslaving those who will be free
Etching his own name in black
For all of us to hear and seeA yellow star for those accused
There's no escape once you've been pinned
A relocation only to confuse
And all their propaganda to hide the awful truth
He is but a solitary man
Whose prejudice will spread like a flame
Throughout the land
He's enslaving those who will be free
Etching his own name in black
For all of us to hear and seeScreams - In the night
Scars so deep that they won't mend
Screams - In the night
Screams - In the night
In their souls they can't pretend
Screams - In the nightSix million lives on the hands of heads of state
They followed orders from above
Then one man when all was lost
He took his life, he'll never pay the price
He is but a solitary man
Whose prejudice will spread like a flame
Throughout the land
He's enslaving those who will be free
Etching his own name in black
For all of us to hear and seeScreams - In the night
Scars so deep that they won't mend
Screams - In the night
Screams - In the night
In their souls they can't pretend
Screams - In the nightThey cannot hide or defend or disguise
For the truth is well known there'll be no alibis
Judgement will pass and their fates won't be kind for the final solution was mass genocide...Screams - In the night
Scars so deep that they won't mend

Screams - In the night
Screams - In the night
In their souls they can't pretend
Screams - In the night
