

Devour

Marilyn Manson

I'll swallow up all of you like
A big bottle of big, big pills
But you're the one that I should never take
But I can't sleep until I devour you
I can't sleep until I devour you You're a flower that's withering
I can't feel your thorns in my hand
This is no embrace, you're buried deep
And you're not crying this is blood all over me
You're not crying this is blood all over me
You're not crying this is blood all over me
And I'll love you if you let me
And I'll love you if you won't make me starve I used to hold your haunted neck
I know I'll miss you if I close my eyes
But this is loaded if I open them
I'll see you and I'll blow your heart to pieces
I will blow your heart to pieces
I will blow your heart to pieces
I will blow your heart to pieces And I'll love you if you let me
And I'll love you if you won't make me starve Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
My pain is not ashamed to repeat itself
My pain is not ashamed to repeat itself
My pain is not ashamed to repeat itself
My pain is not ashamed to repeat itself
I can't sleep until I devour you
I can't sleep until I devour you
I can't sleep until I devour you
I can't sleep until I devour you
And I'll love you if you let me

And I'll love you if you won't make me starve
