

Loved You Once

Clara Mae

Back here in the same town, same bar
But now I don't even know you
It's like we look down, ignore
Now nothing's like it used to be Getting heavy to breathe in this room together
It's so awkward, we can't seem to do it better
Can't we just fake a smile, put our shit to the side?
We don't need to be best friends
We don't need to hang again
But tell me why we have to be strangers?
'Cause I loved you once
We don't need to act the same
But you act like you don't know my name
Tell me why we have to be strangers?
'Cause I loved you once
What would you say if I
If I come over
And stand face to face now
Now that we're older
Getting heavy to breathe in this room together
It's so awkward, we can't seem to do it better
Can't we just fake a smile, put our shit to the side?
We don't need to be best friends
We don't need to hang again
But tell me why we have to be strangers?
'Cause I loved you once
We don't need to act the same
But you act like you don't know my name
Tell me why we have to be strangers?
'Cause I loved you once
Thinking after all this time
I just wanna meet your eyes
So I can remember why
Why I loved you once
Thinking after all this time
We should leave it all behind
So I can remember why
Why I loved you once
We don't need to be best friends
We don't need to hang again
Tell me why we have to be strangers?
'Cause I loved you once
