Regular Joe

Ashton Shepherd

I'm not tryin' to start anything
By comin' up to you tonight
I know that he's yours now
It's sinkin' in with time
But tonight I've had too much to drink

tonight I ve had too much to drink

And he stays on my mind

I just wanted to say he's the best thing you'll ever findCause he ain't your regular joe,

You know?

And I'm the crazy fool that let him go

And if he says he loves you

Then that's what he means

He's the best man I've ever seen

I just wanted you to know

He ain't your regular joe

She turned to me sharply and said

You think I don't know that?

I can't believe you even spoke to me,

What nerve you must have

I said no you don't understand

You don't wanna be in my shoes

See it took him leavin' me

Before I ever knewThat he ain't your regular joe,

You know?

And I'm the crazy fool that let him go

And if he says he loves you

Then that's what he means

He's the best man I've ever seen

I just wanted you to know

He ain't your regular joe

So she drove home from that bar to say that She was sorry to him She was wrong to have stormed out to go Somewhere she shouldn't have been

He said hey baby that's okay

Everybody has their days

That's when she turned to him to sayYou ain't your regular joe,

You know?

And I don't ever plan to let you go

Cause when I say I love you

Then that's what I mean

You're the best man I've ever seen

Oh baby, I love you so

You ain't your regular joe
