

ALONE, PART 3

XXXTENTACION

Can't seem to find someone's shoulder
Who am I to lie on when it's over
Took a chance with you, it made me colder
Here to hold my own when it's all over
So when I'm weak, who do I call?
My God it hurts, I can't weep on
What do I do?
Do I run?
Tired of hate, tired of love
I've dug my nails into my arms
She turned and left with all my scars
What is my word?
Forgive my word
Demon have a piece of me
She put my heart beneath her feet
She turned and left the question what's my word
Demon have a piece of me
She put my heart beneath her feet
She turned and left the question what's my word
My word
My word
(My word)
