

Into Your Eyes

Lucero

Well I'm not suppose to see you looking Not suppose to stare straight into your eyes
I'm not supposed to kiss your lips But you smiled so sweet
I can't resist those eyes
Well you say you might have eyes for me I can only wish that you were mine
I'm not supposed to be here with you
But how can I leave
If you look at me with those eyes
Into your eyes
