Twin Peaks

I was born not breathing
Since I've woke up everyday
Oh, and I, I can't even believe it
The victims of the U.S.A.
They all keep talkin' but got nothin' to say
It had me seizing up and so the season's up Flavor your heart and your soul
Flavor your heart and your soul
Flavor your heart I searched and drifted and grieved, man
Just trying to decide who to be
Oh, and I took the seat by the sea and
I laid beneath the evergreen trees
And I decided I'd just try to be me
And I stopped seizing up and so the season's up
Flavor your heart and your soul
Flavor your heart and your soul
Flavor your heart
