

Her Lies

Asaf Avidan & The Mojos

She said "baby, get down on your knees"
I said "babe if you insist"
She said "why do you keep seeing things you know that don't exist"
I said "baby, I love you, now what can I do,
I'll probably love you till the day I die"
She said "well pretty honey, if that's true than give me both them, pretty eyes" I said "baby, you can have them - you can have my eyes"
See I was thinking if she took them I won't see her lies
But my baby I can taste her lies
But my baby I can taste her lies
She said "baby, get into this sack"
I said "baby, I don't know what's there"
She said "all I want to do with you
Is take you with me everywhere" I said "okay, baby take me everywhere,
Take me through the day, through the night"
She said "oh silly babe, don't you kid with me,
You know I really don't have the time". Still I said "baby, you can take me" - and I got right in
See, I was thinking if she took me, I could taste her skin
But my baby, all I taste is her lies.
Oh my baby, all I taste is her lies,
Oh my honey, all I taste is her lies.
I said "baby, you can have them - you can have my eyes"
See I was thinking if she took them I won't see her lies
But my baby - I can taste her lies.
Oh my baby,
Oh my honey,
Oh my baby Oh my baby,
I can taste.....Her lies.
