

Emily

Catfish and the Bottlemen

New York surprise me
21 and I need something
To pick me up out of
The company I run with
Emily just phoned for me to smoke with her
And on her furniture
Discuss how love has been
I must admit I think I lost my way a bit
Cause 6 days in I swear I lost my baby
But then I wrote two tunes that...
That kinda dragged me out from nowhere
And paid for all my cigarettes
And whatever it took to keep you off my mind
New York surprise me
22 and I need something
To keep me inside of
This company I run with
Emily just phoned for me to smoke with her
And on her furniture
Discuss how love has been (Yeah, we discuss how love has been)
I must admit I've been known to lose my way a bit
Cause 6 days in I swear I lost my patience
But then I wrote two tunes that...
That kinda dragged me out from nowhere
And paid for all my cigarettes
And whatever it took to keep you off my mind
That kinda dragged me out from nowhere
And paid for all my cigarettes
And whatever it took to keep you off my mind.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>