She like to move her hip and pop, no R&B
All I do is chase money, I'm boring B
I think this whole cash ting's just a part of me
Girl you looking like a snack, don't be starving me
Wait, pardon me
You see these gyal here? They're after me
She tried lie about her surgery
I can tell it's fake breasts 'cause it's hard to squeeze
Skinny nigga but my stack weighs more than me
In the bally, you wouldn't even know me
It could've been Dave, it could've been Modie

It could've been AJ, it could've been Tracey
With the mask on the face, how you ever gonna trace me? We make the wave, we could never get washed
We don't behave we don't know about cost
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
We make the wave, we could never get washed
We don't behave we don't know about cost
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss Floss and pause, to the point they have nothing to say
Model girls fuck with the boys so they don't ever runaway
The fashion calls, so I make sure I triple my pay
Nothing's been thrown on her body but she's making it shake
I'm sorted, Knightsbridge cash or card for expense
Unapologetic in Gucci, take offense
Not here to impress, but the whip exit leave the bad B's impressed We make the wave, we could never get washed
We don't behave we don't know about cost
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
We make the wave, we could never get washed
We don't behave we don't know about cost
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss
I hit the shops, pick a drop, and I floss The Elements
